About Victory's Banner

A note from the owner:

You may be wondering just who we are! For me and all of those who work here, Victory's Banner stands as a spiritual expression. We exist for one reason, and one reason only to serve you joyfully, and we do this in two ways:

First, during the day we offer the best food we can. Yes, we are vegetarian, but you won't miss the meat! We use the finest ingredients, like free-range eggs (no hormones-they taste better!), fresh fruit, real whipped cream and great coffee. We've attempted to make the atmosphere uplifting and peaceful.

The saris are worn as a spiritual dress. Even the sugar packets offer an inspiring message!

In the evenings, we offer evenings of music, meditation and meditation instruction at Victory's Banner Bookstore, down the street at 2135 W. Roscoe. Again, these evenings are simply to provide tools of inspiration. There is no charge for these. You may call (773) 248-8500 for bookstore hours or to register for these classes.

As for myself, my bio reads Chiropractor, Computer Consultant, author and lecturer, but more relevant to the restaurant I have been a student of meditation and the Indian Spiritual Master Sri Chinmoy for 36 years. The restaurant is a reflection of the impact Sri Chinmoy has had on my life and is inspired by him. His philosophy encourages a sincere inner life with an active outer life. By meditating on the spiritual heart, he teaches, the seeker can discover his own inner treasures of peace, joy, light and love.

Any way that we can be of service, please let us know.

Pradhan Balter

We close twice a year..

We close twice a year to take time out for spiritual retreat for 10-12 days each: once, in mid-April to celebrate Sri Chinmoy's arrival in the West; and again in late August to celebrate Sri Chinmoy's birthday. Look for our closing dates at www.victorysbanner.com.
